

Hanging files & compartments

Product highlights

- Offers immediate visual file identification
- Innovative suspended design keeps files neat and orderly
- Provides quick or temporary side-tab filing solution
- Superior components guarantee durability

We offer a wide variety of hanging file solutions for shelf-based or side-tab filing applications. Move from top-tab drawer filing to side-tab hanging filing and maximize capacity, while making your filing operation more efficient and productive. Whether you are merging files from different file systems, looking for a temporary shelf-based filing solution, or simply prefer hanging files or compartments over shelf files, our products will provide you with the flexibility and durability you need. Hanging files or compartments stay neat and orderly without the need for shelf dividers. By utilizing our side tab indexing, you will realize quick and efficient file identification.

Hanging compartments

Our hanging compartments feature a sturdy box-bottom design to provide maximum filing capacity. Store large or bulky files, expansion files or pockets, or use compartments to keep groups of files together. With over 80 styles and sizes available, there is sure to be a hanging compartment product suited to meet your needs. Choose compartment sizes from 7 1/2" x 12" up to 24" x 40". Compartments snap together to provide uniform, dense storage to maximize capacity. Sturdy support rails easily install into most shelving types and hold a full range of hanging compartments. Each compartment is rated to support up to 20 pounds and includes a ten-year manufacturer's warranty.

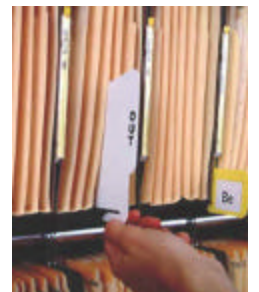

Hanging files

Whether you are looking for a permanent solution or temporary fix, our hanging files can help you solve your problem. If you are planning a digital or micrographic conversion, use hanging folders for a temporary storage solution. Eliminate drawer storage by simply dropping your existing top-tab folders into the files. If you are looking for more permanent hanging file storage, transfer file contents into hanging files and utilize our side-tab labeling system for easy visual identification. For easy installation, remove your shelf and our hanging files are designed to drop onto typical shelf supports. No additional parts are needed. Includes a three-year manufacturer's warranty.

Accessories

Our range of accessories allow you to better manage your investment by organizing and maintaining documents more efficiently, while helping to protect your materials from damage. Sidestops, backstops, end stops, center supports, guides, and label printing software all work together with your system to improve performance and maintain efficiency.
